“Is this college for me?”

Talk to graduates of American colleges and universities through the Club’s Alma Mater Exchange

Are you interested in college education in the United States?
Would you like to speak with someone who has personal insight and experience at a specific American college or university to help you with your choice?

The Alma Mater Exchange draws upon the experience of our membership at American colleges and universities to assist persons in Sweden who have questions about studying at specific schools in the United States.

Types of questions our members may be able to help you with are:

- Is this college for me? What type of student are they looking for?
- What is the atmosphere? Academic? Social? Strong on sports? Politically active campus?
- What type of environment is it? Sheltered, smaller or a more open environment? Rural or urban? Ethnic diversity?
- Can I get financial aid or can I get part-time work there?
- Practical questions such as: Do I need a car? What type of accommodation is available? At what cost? How difficult is it to find?

How to get in touch with us: Please visit americanclub.se/ame to find the Alma Mater Exchange page. In order to get in touch with our members, please e-mail us at ame@amclubsweden.org describing your specific interest, what colleges/universities you are interested in attending and what course of study you intend to pursue.
